

Building Bridges

...Breaking Boundaries

A Joint Action Reconciliation Service for Peace / Fellowship of Reconciliation
Seminar, 18th to 20th May 2007

How well do we deal with difference? While we all like to think we demonstrate the values of equality, justice and acceptance in our lives, are we really just running scared of the unknown?

How does this affect us personally? How does it affect our peacework?

Come to the Action Reconciliation Service for Peace (ARSP)/ Fellowship of Reconciliation (FoR) seminar to find out. Offering an opportunity to join an international community of young peacemakers, the seminar will explore the different ways we can learn about, understand and help build relationships between different cultures and communities. Sessions on interfaith dialogue, mediation skills, and creative workshops are planned.

Offering a wide range of activities which will explore and reflect upon differences, the conference will provide a unique opportunity to ask awkward questions, learn new skills, have discussions within a group of supportive individuals and reflect. We hope you'll join us.

The seminar is a joint initiative between Action Reconciliation Service for Peace, and the Fellowship of Reconciliation. While FoR is an ecumenical Christian organisation, and ARSP has Christian roots, this event welcomes people of all faiths and none. The seminar will be a residential weekend for 18 to 30 year olds, and will be held at Yardley Hastings, Northampton. The cost of the weekend is £40 and a limited number of travel bursaries and subsidised places are available.
