The things that make for peace

10–12 March 2017

Luther King House

Manchester, M14 5JP

A joint conference by the Methodist Peace Fellowship, Anglican Pacifist Fellowship and Fellowship of Reconciliation

We're delighted to announce that contributors so far include:

Elfrida Calvocoressi, chair of Christian International Peace Service (CHIPS). A former nurse and midwife, Elfrida has been involved in practical, grassroots peacemaking for many years, with a focus on biblical principles of Christian peacemaking.

Alan Storkey is an economist, sociologist and artist. He is known for his writing and lectures and for his work on transport and the Arms Trade. His session is about A Strategy for the War against War.

Liz Firth works for the Church Urban Fund in partnership with the Diocese of Leeds, and was previously Inter-Faith worker at Bradford Cathedral. She links with newly arrived women and seldom-heard groups, and also hosts a community radio programme. She will talk about her project, Faith and Peace, which is working on at Bradford Peace Museum.

Cities of Sanctuary is a project which welcomes people who come to the UK seeking sanctuary, many of whom are escaping violence.

...plus workshops on grassroots peacemaking & creative activism, worship and plenty of social time. All sessions optional. It will also include FoR's AGM; members actively encouraged to participate!

Programme information will be added as we confirm more speakers, so keep an eye on eventbrite.co.uk/e/things-make-for-peace

The conference will start at 5pm on Friday (dinner included) and end after lunch on Sunday. We hope you can join us for the whole weekend. However, the theme and programme will still be coherent and complete if you're only able to come for Saturday.

Social media for the weekend: @forpeacemaker and use #MakeForPeace

The Things That Makes for Peace* is a joint conference between the Methodist Peace Fellowship, Anglican Pacifist Fellowship, and the Fellowship of Reconciliation. We welcome people of all faiths and none.
